

I understand that
Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.

This partisan use of the airwaves is a clear example of the dangers of media
consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the airwaves, we get more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
